

Name: _____

Write either Fragment, Run-on or Good next to each example below depending on whether they show a fragment, a run-on, or a good sentence.

1. There are many reasons to like her, and I could give you two. _____
2. While I have many reasons to like her. _____
3. There are many reasons to like her she is very funny. _____
4. She is very intelligent. _____
5. She was like that from the very start I knew I'd like her. _____
6. Because she reads many books. _____