

Worksheet 3/7 Look for the Object of the Nouns

Pick one of the three sentences that makes the most sense by writing N for Noun. The first one has been done for you.

- 1.a Mrs. Wood asked the class to walk, not run, down the hall.     N b Alligators asked the class to walk, not run, down the hall.           
c Oranges asked the class to walk, not run, down the hall.
- 2.a Raindrops are flying to the moon.           
b Chairs are flying to the moon.           
c Spaceships are flying to the moon.
- 3.a Computers grow on trees.           
b Peaches grow on trees.           
c Money grows on trees.
- 4.a Freshly children fills the air with a comforting aroma.           
b Freshly cars fills the air with a comforting aroma.           
c Freshly baked bread fills the air with a comforting aroma.
- 5.a Kitchens trim the sails and wash the deck.           
b Sailors trim the sails and wash the deck.           
c Doctors trim the sails and wash the deck.
- 6.a Apples filled the shelves with endless literature to read.           
b Houses filled the shelves with endless literature to read.           
c Books filled the shelves with endless literature to read.

Worksheet 3/7 Look for the Object of the Nouns

Pick one of the three sentences that makes the most sense by writing N for Noun. The first one has been done for you.

- 1.a Mrs. Wood asked the class to walk, not run, down the hall.     N b Alligators asked the class to walk, not run, down the hall.                     
c Oranges asked the class to walk, not run, down the hall.
- 2.a Raindrops are flying to the moon.                     
b Chairs are flying to the moon.                     
c Spaceships are flying to the moon.                     N
- 3.a Computers grow on trees.                     
b Peaches grow on trees.                     N                    
c Money grows on trees.
- 4.a Freshly children fills the air with a comforting aroma.                     
b Freshly cars fills the air with a comforting aroma.                     
c Freshly baked bread fills the air with a comforting aroma.                     N
- 5.a Kitchens trim the sails and wash the deck.                     
b Sailors trim the sails and wash the deck.                     N                    
c Doctors trim the sails and wash the deck.
- 6.a Apples filled the shelves with endless literature to read.                     
b Houses filled the shelves with endless literature to read.                     
c Books filled the shelves with endless literature to read.                     N