

Worksheet 1/7 Something on the Subject

Re-write the sentences using a capital letter at the beginning and a period at the end of each sentence. Circle the subject. The first one has been done for you.

1)	flowers grew Flowers grew. Flowers is the subject. Flowers is the noun.
2)	tiny bees buzzed
3)	mountains reached for the clouds ~
4)	students love to read
5)	johnny rode his bike
6)	california is beautiful
7)	suddenly, we jumped up

Proof read your work. Check if each word is spelled correctly. Did you use capital letters and a period? Check with the Rubric.

Start a notebook to write all the new words you are learning. Build your very own English dictionary. Here is an example;

Nouns	flowers	bees	mountains	clouds	students	Johnny	bike	California
--------------	---------	------	-----------	--------	----------	--------	------	------------

Worksheet 1/7 Something on the Subject

Re-write the sentences using a capital letter at the beginning and a period at the end of each sentence. Circle the subject. The first one has been done for you.

1)	flowers grew Flowers grew. Flowers is the subject. Flowers is the noun.
2)	tiny bees buzzed Tiny bees buzzed.
3)	mountains reached for the clouds ~ Mountains reached for the clouds.
4)	students love to read Students love to read.
5)	johnny rode his bike Johnny rode his bike.
6)	california is beautiful California is beautiful.
7)	suddenly, we jumped up Suddenly, we jumped up.

Proof read your work. Check if each word is spelled correctly. Did you use capital letters and a period? Check with the Rubric.

Start a notebook to write all the new words you are learning. Build your very own English dictionary. Here is an example;

Nouns	flowers	bees	mountains	clouds	students	Johnny	bike	California
--------------	---------	------	-----------	--------	----------	--------	------	------------