

Worksheet 2/7 Visiting Verb Openers

Circle the verb in each sentence. Notice that there is more than one verb in some of the sentences. The first one has been done for you.

- 1) Several people are walking around the mall.
- 2) Hissing, the snakes slither through the tall grass.
- 3) Mr. Burns agreed that the car would not move.
- 4) Snow covers the ground like a fluffy, white blanket.
- 5) Their boots were filling with water.
- 6) Flocks of swans honk as they fly North in Spring.
- 7) Behind the door, the coats are hanging.

Now, I am going to re-write the sentences using the verbs as sentence openers. Notice how you have to change some of the words so that the sentences make sense.

- 1) Walking around the mall, several people were shopping.
- 2) Slithering through the tall grass, the snakes hissed.
- 3) Moving the car is too difficult for Mr. Burns.
- 4) Covering the ground like a white blanket, snow fell softly.
- 5) Filling with water, their boots became heavy .
- 6) Flying North in Spring, the flocks of geese were honking.
- 7) Hanging the coats behind the door was a good idea.

Worksheet 2/7 Visiting Verb Openers

Circle the verb in each sentence. Notice that there is more than one verb in some of the sentences. The first one has been done for you.

- 1) Several people are walking around the mall.
- 2) Hissing, the snakes slither through the tall grass.
- 3) Mr. Burns agreed that the car would not move.
- 4) Snow covers the ground like a fluffy, white blanket.
- 5) Their boots were filling with water.
- 6) Flocks of swans honk as they fly North in Spring.
- 7) Behind the door, the coats are hanging.

Now, I am going to re-write the sentences using the verbs as sentence openers. Notice how you have to change some of the words so that the sentences make sense.

- 1) Walking around the mall, several people were shopping.
- 2) Slithering through the tall grass, the snakes hissed.
- 3) Moving the car is too difficult for Mr. Burns.
- 4) Covering the ground like a white blanket, snow fell softly.
- 5) Filling with water, their boots became heavy .
- 6) Flying North in Spring, the flocks of geese were honking.
- 7) Hanging the coats behind the door was a good idea.