

Name: _____

Circle the word that best completes the sentence based on whether the noun is a count or a non-count noun.

1. The printer was jammed because there was too [much / many] paper in the tray.
2. With even [fewer / a little] thought, we could have avoided this situation.
3. There will be [not many / less] danger if we go this way.
4. There are [fewer / less] cars on this street.
5. There are a [large amount / greater number] of children playing outside.
6. You might notice there are not too [much / many] parents supervising their children.
7. I do not drink [much / a few / some] coffee.
8. Calgary had [some / a few] snow last month, but not [many / much].
9. I saw [some / much / a little] work colleagues at the park.
10. How [much / many] text messages do you send in a day?
11. How [much / many] money do you think it costs to fly to Orlando?
12. There are [some / much] people who have never voted.
13. I will take [a few / many / a little] time with this question.
14. I know that we have [many / some / a few] reason to celebrate.