

Worksheet 3/7 Chart the Subject - Noun

Use the nouns from the list to complete the chart below.

The first one has been done for you.

Dr. Jones	Bermuda	teacher	Mrs. Russell	park
pencil	Mexico	bowl	Scotland	doctor
Karen	kitchen	towel	table	Dallas
Mr. Carter	flower	chair	You	school

person	place	thing
Dr. Jones	park	pencil
_____	_____	_____

Write a sentence using the words from the chart. You have the subjects or nouns, now add an action or verb. Tell the reader what the subject or noun is doing. The first one has been done for you.

1) Dr. Jones is sketching trees with her pencil in the park.

2)

3)

4)

5)

6)

7)

Does each sentence have a noun? Are the words spelled correctly? Did you use capital letters and a period or full stop at the end of your sentence. Check your work with the Rubric.

Worksheet 3/7 Chart the Subject - Noun

Use the nouns from the list to complete the chart below.

The first one has been done for you.

Dr. Jones	Bermuda	teacher	Mrs. Russell	park
pencil	Mexico	bowl	Scotland	doctor
Karen	kitchen	towel	table	Dallas
Mr. Carter	flower	chair	You	school

person	place	thing
Dr. Jones	park	pencil
Karen	school	chair
Mrs. Russell	Dallas	flower
Mr. Carter	Mexico	table
teacher	Scotland	paper
You	kitchen	bowl
doctor	Bermuda	towel

Write a sentence using the words from the chart. You have the subjects or nouns, now add an action or verb. Tell the reader what the subject or noun is doing. The first one has been done for you.

1) Dr. Jones is sketching trees with her pencil in the park.

2) Karen delivered the chair to the school.

3) Mrs. Russell planted flowers in Dallas.

4) Mr. Carter danced on a table in Mexico.

5) A Scotland teacher used all the paper to make the student's book.

6) You put the apple in the bowl which is on the kitchen counter.

7) The Bermuda doctor wiped his forehead with the towel.

Does each sentence have a noun? Are the words spelled correctly? Did you use capital letters and a period or full stop at the end of your sentence. Check your work with the Rubric.